- (a) is commenced in the State and completed in another State, or
- (b) is completed in the State after being commenced in another State,
- the Suspect may be tried and punished as if the offence had actually or wholly been committed in the State.
109. Where a question arises as to which of the two or more Courts of the State ought to inquire into or try any offence, it shall be decided by the Chief Judge. Chief Judge to decide question as to Court of inquiry or place of trial.
110. (1) The Chief Judge may, where it appears to him that the transfer of a case will promote the ends of justice or will be in the interest of the public peace, transfer any case from one Court to another. Chief Judge may transfer a case.
- (2) The power of the Chief Judge referred to in subsection (1) of this Section shall not be exercised where the prosecution has called witnesses.
- (3) Where the Chief Judge is to exercise this power subsequent to a petition, the Chief Judge shall cause the petition to be investigated by an independent body of not more than three reputable legal practitioners within one week of receipt of such petition.
- (4) The investigating body shall submit its report within two weeks of appointment except otherwise specified.
111. (1) Where a Suspect is to be remanded in custody, a warrant shall be issued by the remitting Court and that warrant shall be sufficient authority to any person to whom it is directed to: Removal under warrant.
- (a) receive and detain the Suspect named in the warrant; and
- (b) produce him to the Court to which the Suspect charged is remitted.
- (2) The person to whom the warrant is directed shall execute it according to its terms without any delay.
112. Where a Suspect is: Transfer of case where cause of complaint has arisen out of jurisdiction of Court.

(a) in custody and the Court directing a transfer thinks it expedient that the custody should be continued, or

(b) not in custody, that he should be placed in custody, the Court shall, by its warrant, commit the Suspect to prison for a period not exceeding 14 days, subject to such security as it may deem appropriate in the circumstances, until he can be taken before a Court wherein the cause of complaint arose, or is to be dealt with.

113. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 106 and 107 of this Law, a Judge or Magistrate of a division or District in which a Suspect:

Court may assume jurisdiction under certain conditions.

(a) is arrested and charged with an offence, alleged to have been committed in another division or District;

(b) is in custody on the charge; or

(c) has appeared in answer to summons Lawfully issued charging the offence, may, where he considers that justice would be better served and having regards to the accessibility and convenience of the witnesses, proceed to hear the charge, try and punish the Suspect as if the offence had been committed in the division or District.

(2) The offence referred to in subsection (1) of this Section shall, for all purposes, be deemed to have been committed in that division or District.

114. Where a case is commenced in any other division or District than that in which it ought to have been commenced, the Court may assume jurisdiction in accordance with the provisions of Section 112 of this Law and all acts performed and all decisions given by the Court during the trial or any other proceeding shall be deemed to be valid in all respect as if the jurisdiction had been assumed prior to the performance of the acts and the giving of the decisions.

jurisdiction after commencement of proceedings.

PART 11 - POWERS OF THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL

115. (1) The Attorney-General may prefer a charge in any Court in respect of an offence created by a Law of the State House of Assembly.

advice and other directives to police.

(2) Where any proceeding is pending in respect of the offence for which legal advice or other direction referred to in subsection (1) of this Section is given, a copy of the legal advice or direction shall be forwarded by the Attorney General or Director of Public Prosecutions to the Court before whom the proceeding is pending.

- (3) The Attorney-General may request from the Police or any other agency for the case file in any matter and the Police or other agency shall immediately send the case file as requested.

117. (1) In pursuance of the provisions of the Constitution relating to the powers of prosecution by the Attorney-General the prosecution of all offences in any Court shall be undertaken by: Prosecution of offences.

- (a) the Attorney-General or a Law Officer in his Ministry or Department;
- (b) a legal practitioner authorized by the Attorney-General;
- (c) a legal practitioner authorized to prosecute by this Law or any other Law of the State House of Assembly.

(2) On receipt of a complaint relating to the Commission of an offence punishable with death, or such other offence(s) as may be specified by the Governor and published in the State gazette, the Attorney-General shall assign a Law Officer to investigate the said offence(s) in conjunction with the police.

(3) It shall be the responsibility of the Commissioner of Police of the State to, within 7 days of the commission of any offence covered by subsection 2 of this section, notify the Attorney-General.

PART 12 - CONTROL OF CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS BY THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL

118. (1) In any criminal proceeding for an offence created by a Law of the State House of Assembly, and at any stage of the proceeding before judgment, the Attorney-General may discontinue the proceedings either by stating in Court or informing the Court in writing that the Attorney-General intends that the proceeding should be discontinued and, the Suspect shall immediately be discharged in respect of the charge or information for which the discontinuance is entered. Discontinuance of criminal cases.

(2) Where the Suspect:

- (a) has been committed to prison, he shall be released; or
- (b) is on bail, the recognisance shall be discharged.

(3) Where the Suspect is not:

- (a) before the Court when the discontinuance is entered, the registrar or other proper Officer of the Court shall immediately cause notice in writing of the entry of the discontinuance to be given to the Officer in charge of the prison or other place in which the Suspect may be detained and the notice shall be sufficient authority to discharge the Suspect; or

(b) in custody, the Court shall immediately cause notice in writing to be given to the Suspect and his sureties and shall in either case cause a similar notice in writing to be given to any witness bound over to testify.

(4) Where discontinuance is entered in accordance with the provisions of this Section, the discharge of a Suspect shall not operate as a bar to any subsequent proceeding against him on account of the same facts.

119. (1) In any trial or proceeding before a Court, a Prosecutor may, on the instruction of the Attorney-General in case of offences against a Law of the State House of Assembly, at any stage before judgment is pronounced, withdraw the charge against any Defendant either generally or in respect of one or more of the offences with which the Defendant is charged.

Withdrawals from prosecution in trials and inquiries before a Court.

(2) Where the withdrawal is made:

(a) before the Defendant is called upon to make his defence, he shall be discharged of the offence; and

(b) after the Defendant has entered his defence, he shall be acquitted of the offence.

(3) In any trial before a Court in which the Prosecutor withdraws in respect of the prosecution of an offence before the Defendant is called upon to make his defence, the Court may, in its discretion, Order the Defendant to be acquitted if it is satisfied, on the merits of the case, that the order is a proper one, and when an order of acquittal is made, the Court shall endorse its reasons for making the order on the record.

(4) Where a private Prosecutor withdraws from a prosecution for an offence under the provisions of this Section, the Court may, in its discretion, award costs against the Prosecutor.

(5) A discharge of a Defendant under this Section shall not operate as a bar to subsequent proceedings against him on account of the same facts, except as otherwise provided under this Section.

PART 13 - INSTITUTION OF PROCEEDINGS

120. Subject to the provisions of any other Law, criminal proceedings may, in accordance with the provisions of this Law, be instituted:

Different methods of instituting criminal proceedings.

- (f) the Courts before which he was arraigned;
- (g) name of the prosecuting agency;
- (h) name of the Prosecutor; and
- (i) any other relevant information.

(3) Upon receipt of such return, the recipient shall take such steps as are necessary to address the issues raised in the return in furtherance of the purpose of this Law.

PART 14 - FIRST INFORMATION REPORT

123. (1) Where a complaint is brought before a Police Officer in charge of a police station concerning the commission of an offence and is:
- Procedure for receiving complaint and First Information Report.
- (a) one for which the police are authorised to arrest without a warrant, and
 - (b) triable by a Magistrate Court within which jurisdiction the police station is situated, the police shall, if the complaint is made orally, reduce the complaint or cause it to be reduced into writing in the Police Diary.
- (2) The complaint, whether given in writing or orally shall be reduced in writing into the Police Diary and read or cause to be read over to the complainant and every such complaint shall be signed by the Officer receiving the complaint.
- (3) where on any other ground the Officer in charge of a police station has reason to Suspect the commission of an offence referred to in subsection (1), he shall enter or cause to be entered the grounds of his suspicion in a Police Diary.
- (4) Where the Officer is satisfied that no public interest may be served by prosecuting, he may refuse to accept the complaint provided that he notifies the complainant of his right to complain to a Court under Section 120 (a) of this Law.
- (5) Notwithstanding the provision of subsection (2) of this Section, the Officer in charge of a police station may, if in his opinion the matter might more conveniently be inquired into by an Officer in charge of another police station, refer the complaint to such other police station.
- (6) After complying with the provisions of subsection (3) of this Section, the Officer in charge of the police station shall act as follows:
- (a) he shall forthwith proceed to the scene and investigate the case and if the Suspect is not in custody, take such steps as may be necessary for the discovery and arrest of the Suspect or he may direct a Police Officer subordinate to him to do so and report to him;
 - (b) in cases involving death or serious injury to any person, the Officer in charge of the police station shall arrange, if possible, for the person to be taken to the nearest hospital for such further examination as may be necessary;
 - (c) where the complaint is given against a person by name and the alleged offence is not of a serious nature, the Officer in charge of a police station need not make or direct investigation on the spot;
 - (d) in the cases mentioned in paragraph (c) of this subsection, the Officer in charge of the police station shall record in the book referred to in subsection (2) and in the First Information Report to the Court his reason for not entering on an investigation or for not making or directing investigation on the spot or not investigating the case;

- (e) where after the investigation, it appears that the complaints against the Suspect are unfounded, the investigation shall be terminated and this fact shall be recorded in the Police Diary mentioned in subsection (2) of this Section; and
 - (f) where the Officer considers that the prosecution of the alleged offence will serve the public interest, the Officer shall reduce the complaint into the prescribed form called First Information Report and the Officer shall take the alleged Suspect with the First Information Report before a Magistrate within whose jurisdiction the police station is situated.
- (7) Where the Suspect appears or is brought before the Magistrate Court, the particulars of the offence of which he is accused shall be read to him and he shall be asked if he has any cause to show why he should not be tried by the Magistrate.
- (8) Where upon hearing the information, the alleged Suspect admits the commission of the offence contained in the First Information Report, his admission shall be recorded as near as possible in the words used by him and if he shows no sufficient cause why he should not be convicted, the Magistrate may convict him accordingly and in that case it shall not be necessary to frame a formal charge.
- (9) Where the Suspect denies the allegation against him and States that he intends to show cause why he should not be convicted, the Magistrate shall proceed to hear the complainant and take such evidence as may be produced in support of the prosecution and the Suspect shall be at liberty to cross-examine the witnesses for the prosecution and if he so does, the Prosecutor may re-examine the witnesses where necessary.
- (10) Where the evidence referred to in subsection (9) of this Section has been taken or at any stage of the case, the Magistrate is of the opinion that there is ground that the Suspect has committed an offence triable under this part, which such Magistrate Court is competent to try and which, in the opinion of the Magistrate, could be adequately punished, the Magistrate shall frame a charge stating the offence and direct that the Suspect be tried in another Magistrate Court.

PART 15 - COMPELLING APPEARANCE OF SUSPECTS

- 124. A Court may issue a summons or warrant as provided in this Law to compel the appearance before it of a suspect accused of having committed an offence in any place, whether within or outside the State, triable in the State. Compelling appearance of a Suspect.

| 213. | (1) Where a Law constituting an offence states the offence to be the omission to do any one of different acts in the alternative, or the doing or the omission to do any act in any one of the different capacities, or with any one of the different intentions, or states any part of the offence in the alternative, the act, omission, capacity, or intention, or other matter stated in the alternative in the Law, may be stated in the alternative in the charge. (2) It shall not be necessary in any charge where the offence is one constituted by a Law to negate any exception or exemption from or qualification to the operation of the Law creating the offence. | Provision as to statutory offences. |
| 214. | (1) The description or designation of the Defendant in a charge or of any other person to whom reference is made therein may be in the manner set out in Section 199 of this Law. (2) Where it is necessary to refer to a document or an instrument in a charge, it is sufficient to describe it by any name or designation by which it is commonly known, or by the purport of the document without setting out the content. | Description of persons and documents. |
| 215. | Subject to any other provision of this Law, it is sufficient to describe any place, time, thing, matter, act, or omission to which it is necessary to refer in a charge in ordinary language in such a manner as to indicate with reasonable clarity the place, time, thing, matter, act or omission referred to. | General rule as to description. |
| 216. | It is not necessary in stating an intent to defraud, deceive or injure any particular person, where the Law creating the offence does not make an intent to defraud, deceive or injure a particular person an essential ingredient of the offence. | Statement of intent. |
| 217. | The following Defendants may be charged and tried together for:: (a) the same offence committed in the course of the same transaction; (b) an offence and another of abetting or being accessory to or attempting to commit the same offence; (c) more than one offence of the same or similar character, committed by them jointly; (d) different offences committed in the course of the same transaction; (e) offences which include theft, extortion or criminal misappropriation and another accused of receiving or retaining or assisting in the disposal or concealment of property, the possession of which has been transferred by offences committed by the First named persons, or of abetment of or attempting to commit any of the last named offences; | Defendants who may be charged jointly. |

and

- (f) dishonestly receiving stolen property or assisting in concealment of stolen property, or in respect of stolen property the possession of which has been transferred by one offence, and another accused of offences committed during a fight or series of fights arising out of another fight, and persons accused of abetting any of these offences.

218. For every distinct offence with which a Defendant is accused, there shall be a separate charge and every charge shall be tried separately except in the following circumstances:
- Separate charges for distinct offences.
- (a) any three offences committed by a Defendant within 12 months whether or not they are of the same or similar character or whether or not they are in respect of the same person or persons;
 - (b) any number of the same type of offence committed by a Defendant;
 - (c) any number of offence committed by a Defendant in the course of the same transaction having regard to the proximity of the time and place, continuity of action and community of purpose; or
 - (d) cases mentioned in Sections 219 to 223 of this Law.
219. Where in one series of acts or omissions so connected together as to form the same transaction or which form or are part of a series of offences of the same or a similar character, more offences than one are committed by the same Defendant, charges for the offences may be joined and the Defendant accused tried for the offences at one trial.
- Trial for more than one offence.
220. Where the acts or omissions alleged constitute an offence falling within two or more separate definitions in any Law for the time being in force under which offences are defined or punished, the Defendant accused of them may be charged with and tried at one trial for each of those offences.
- Offences falling within two definitions.
221. Where several acts or omissions, of which one or more than one would by itself or themselves constitute an offence, constituted when combined with a different offence, the Defendant accused of them may be charged with and tried at one trial for the offence constituted by those acts or omission when combined or for any offence constituted by any one or more of those acts.
- Acts constituting one offence but constituting a different offence when combined.
222. Where a single act or omission or series of acts or omissions is of such a nature that it is doubtful which of several offences, the facts of which can be proved, will constitute the offence with which the Defendant may be charged with having committed all or any of those offences and any number of those charges may be tried at once or he may be charged in the alternative with having committed any of those offences.
- Where it is doubtful which offence has been committed.
223. Where a single act or omission the fact or combination of facts constitutes more than one offence, the Defendant may be charged and tried at one trial for one or more of those offences.
- Incidental offences in the same transaction.

PART 23 - ALTERATION OR AMENDMENT OF CHARGES

| 224. | (1) Where a Defendant is arraigned on an imperfect charge, a Court shall permit an alteration or amendment to the charge or framing of a new charge at any time before judgment is pronounced. (2) The Court may in appropriate cases frame a charge or add or alter the charge as the case may be having regard to the provisions of this Law. (3) An alteration or amendment of a new charge shall be read and explained to the Defendant and his plea to the amended or new charge shall be taken. | Alteration and amendment of charge by permission of Court. |
| 225. | (1) Where a new charge is framed or alteration made to a charge under the provisions of Section 224 of this Law, the Court shall call on the Defendant to plead to the new or altered charge as if he has been arraigned for the First time. (2) The Court shall proceed with the trial as if the new or altered charge had been the original charge. | Procedure on alteration of charge. |
| 226. | (1) Where the charge as revised under Section 224 or 225 of this Law is such that proceeding immediately with the trial is not likely in the opinion of the Court, to prejudice the Defendant in his defence or the Prosecutor, as the case may be, in the conduct of the case, the Court may in its discretion forthwith proceed with the trial as if the charge so revised had been the original charge. (2) Where a charge is so amended, a note of the order for amendment shall be endorsed on the charge, and the charge shall be treated, for the purpose of all proceedings in connection therewith, as having been filed in the amended form. | When Court may proceed with trial immediately after altering, adding to or framing charge. |
| 227. | Where a charge is altered, amended or substituted after the commencement of the trial, the Prosecutor and the Defendant shall be allowed to recall or re-summon and examine any witness who may have been examined and to call any further witness, provided that such examination shall be limited to the alteration, amendment or substitution made. | Recall of witnesses when charge is revised. |
| 228. | An error in stating the offence or the particulars required to be stated in a charge or an omission to state the offence or those particulars, or any duplicity, mis-joinder or non-joinder of the particulars of the offence shall not be regarded at any stage of the case as material unless the Defendant was in fact misled by the error or omission. | Effect of error. |
| 229. | Objections to a charge shall only be entertained immediately after arraignment. | Objection to a charge. |
| 230. | (1) Where an appellate Court is of the opinion that a Defendant convicted of an offence was misled in his defence by an error in the charge, which has occasioned a miscarriage of justice, it may direct that the trial be recommenced | Effect of material error. | on another charge.

- (2) Where the appellate Court is of the opinion that the facts of the case are such that no valid charge could have been preferred against the Defendant in respect of the facts proved, it shall quash the conviction.

PART 24 - CONVICTION WHEN CHARGED WITH ONE OF SEVERAL OFFENCES OR OF ANOTHER OFFENCE

|------|--|---|
| 231. | Where a Defendant is charged with one offence and it appears in evidence that he committed a similar offence with which he might have been charged under the provisions of this Law, he may be convicted of the offence, which he is shown to have committed although he was not charged with it. | Where Defendant charged with one offence may be convicted of another. |
| 232. | Where a Defendant is charged with an offence but the evidence establishes an attempt to commit the offence, he may be convicted of having attempted to commit that offence although the attempt is not separately charged. | Full offence charged, attempt proved. |
| 233. | Where a Defendant is charged with an attempt to commit an offence but the evidence establishes the commission of the full offence he shall not be entitled to an acquittal but he may be convicted of the offence and punished accordingly. | Attempt charged-full offence proved. |
| 234. | Where a Defendant has been convicted of an attempt under either Section 232 or 233 of this Law, he shall not subsequently be liable to be prosecuted for the offence for which he was convicted of attempting to commit. | Liability as to further prosecution. |
| 235. | Where a Defendant is charged with an offence and the evidence establishes that he is an accessory after the fact to that offence or to some other offence of which a Defendant charged with the First-mentioned offence may be convicted by virtue of any of the provisions of this Law, he may be convicted as an accessory after the fact to that offence or that other offence, as the case may be and be punished accordingly. | On charge of an offence conviction as accessory after the fact to that or connected offence may follow. |
| 236. | Where a Defendant is charged with an offence relating to property and the evidence establishes the commission by him with respect to the same property of another offence, he may be convicted of that other offence although he was not charged with it. | Conviction of similar offences relating to property. |
| 237 | Where on trial for theft, housebreaking or related offence, the facts proved in evidence justify a conviction for some other offences and not the offence with which the Defendant is charged, the Defendant may be convicted of the other offence and be punished as if he had been convicted on a charge with the offence. | Defendant charged with housebreaking may be convicted of similar offence. |
| 238. | Where on a trial for rape, incest and other sexual offences, the facts proved in evidence can ground conviction for a lesser or different offence and not the offence with which the Defendant is charged, he may be convicted of the lesser or different offence of gross indecency and be punished as if he had been convicted on a charge with the offence of gross indecency. | On charge of rape, incest, other sexual offences conviction for gross indecency may follow. |

239. (1) A trial for the offences referred to in subsection (4) of this Section may not, where the Court so determines, be held in an open Court.
- (2) The names, addresses, telephone numbers and identity of the victims of such offences or witnesses shall not be disclosed in any record or report of the proceedings and it shall be sufficient to designate the names of the victims or witnesses with a combination of letters of the alphabet.
- (3) Where in any proceeding the Court deems it necessary to protect the identity of the victim or a witness, the Court may take any or all of the following measures:
- (a) receive evidence by video link or other electronic means;
 - (b) permit the witness to be screened or masked;
 - (c) receive written deposition of expert evidence; and
 - (d) any other measure that the Court considers appropriate in the circumstance.
- (4) The provision of this Section shall apply to:
- (a) offences mentioned under Section 238 of this Law ;
 - (b) offences of Armed Robbery, kidnapping, abduction and other crimes involving the use of or threat of violence
 - (c) offences under the Terrorism (Prevention) Act and its amendments;
 - (d) offences relating to Economic and Financial Crimes;
 - (e) Trafficking in Persons and related offences; and
 - (f) any other offence in respect of which a Law of the State House of Assembly permits the use of such protective measures or as the Judge may consider appropriate in the circumstances.
240. (1) Where a Defendant is charged with an offence consisting of several particulars, a combination of some of which constitutes a lesser offence in itself and the combination is proved but the remaining particulars are not proved, he may be convicted of, or plead guilty to the lesser offence although he was not charged with it.
- (2) Where a Defendant is charged with an offence and facts are proved which reduce it to a lesser offence, he may be convicted of the lesser offence although he was not charged with it.
241. (1) Where more than one charge is made against a Defendant and a conviction has been had on one or more of them, the Prosecutor may, with the consent of the Procedure for trial on charge for certain offences requiring witness protection.

Where offence proved is not included in offence charged.

Withdrawal of remaining charges on

Court, withdraw the remaining charge or charges or the Court, of its own motion, may stay the trial of the charge or charges. conviction on one of several charges.

- (2) A withdrawal has the effect of an acquittal on the charge or charges unless the conviction which has been had is set aside, in which case, subject to any order of the Court setting aside such conviction, the Court before which the withdrawal was made may, on the request of the Prosecutor, proceed on the Charge or the charges withdrawn.

PART 25 - PREVIOUS ACQUITTALS OR CONVICTION

242. (1) Without prejudice to Section 234 of this Law, a Defendant charged with an offence is not liable to be tried for that offence where it is shown that he has previously been: Defendant convicted or acquitted not to be tried again for same or kindred offence.
- (a) convicted or acquitted of the same offence by a competent Court;
 - (b) convicted or acquitted by a competent Court on a charge on which he might have been convicted of the offence charged; or
 - (c) convicted for or acquitted of an offence by a competent Court other than the offence charged, being an offence for which, apart from this Section, he might be convicted by virtue of being charged with the offence charged.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) of this Section shall prejudice the operation of a Law giving power to a Court, on an appeal, to set aside a verdict or finding of another Court and order a re-trial.

- 243 A Defendant acquitted or convicted of an offence may afterwards be tried for a distinct offence for which a separate charge might have been made against him on the previous trial under the provisions of Section 219 of this Law. A Defendant may be tried again on separate charge in certain cases.

244. A Defendant acquitted or convicted of an offence constituted by an act or omission causing consequences which together with that act or omission constitute a different offence from that for which he was acquitted or convicted, may afterwards be tried for the last-mentioned offence if the consequences had not happened or were not known to the Court to have happened at the time when he was acquitted or convicted when the consequences create the offence of culpable homicide punishable or not punishable with death. Consequences supervening or not known at previous trial.

PART 26 - WITNESSES: COMPELLING ATTENDANCE AND TAKING OF OATH OR MAKING OF AFFIRMATION

245. (1) The Court may, on an application of the prosecution or the defence, issue a summon or writ of subpoena on a witness requiring him to attend Court to give evidence in respect of the case, and to bring with him any specified documents or things and any other document or thing relating to them which may be in his possession or power or under his control. Issue of summons for witness.

- (2) Where the Prosecutor is not a public Officer the person to whom the summons is addressed is not bound to attend unless his traveling expenses are paid to him.

246. (1) A Court with criminal jurisdiction shall have a process server specifically assigned to it.
- (2) The process server has the responsibility to effect efficient service of witness summons, Defendant's production orders, writs and all other processes issued in the Court in respect of all criminal matters.
- (3) A summons shall be served on the person to whom it is directed in the same manner as is set out in Section 133 or 134 of this Law or, with leave of the Court.
- (4) Section 136 and Sections 138 to 142 of this Law shall apply to the summons.
- (5) Service of processes may be effected by registered reputable courier companies, recognized and authorized by the Chief Judge in accordance with the provisions of this Law, and such registered courier companies may be assigned to the Courts with criminal jurisdiction as process servers in accordance with subsection (1) of this Section.
- (6) The Attorney-General or a person so authorized by him or the police, may serve on a person whom the Prosecutor wishes to call as witness, a witness summons or writ of subpoena.
- (7) Proof of service of a process or document shall be endorsed by the recipient and the process server shall file the endorsed copy together with an affidavit of service.

Service of summons and other processes on witnesses.

247. Where a witness summoned to give evidence does not:

Warrant for witness after summons.

(a) attend Court at the time and place indicated on the summons, and

(b) provide any reasonable excuse for his non-attendance, then after proof that the summons was duly served on him, or that the person to be served willfully avoids service, the Court may issue a warrant to arrest and bring him before the Court.

248. Where the Court is satisfied in the first instance, by proof on oath, that a person likely to give material evidence, either for the prosecution or for the defence, will not attend to give evidence without being compelled to do so, then, instead of issuing a summons, it may issue a warrant for the arrest of the person.

Issue of warrant for witness.

249. (1) A witness arrested under a warrant shall, if practicable and where the hearing of the case for which his evidence is required is fixed for a time which is more than 24 hours after the arrest, be taken before a Magistrate and the Magistrate:

Mode of dealing with witness arrested under warrant.

(a) may, on the witness furnishing security by recognisance to the satisfaction of the Magistrate for his appearance at the hearing, order him to be released from custody; or

(b) shall, on the witness failing to furnish the security, order him to be detained for production at the hearing.

(2) The provisions of this Law relating to bail, summons and warrants in respect of the Defendant shall apply to witnesses.

(3) A witness arrested or detained under this Section shall not be kept in the same room or place as the Defendant, if the Defendant is in custody and the Defendant shall not be allowed to make any contact with the witness.

250. (1) A witness who:

Penalty on witnesses refusing to attend.

(a) refuses or neglects, without reasonable cause, to attend Court in compliance with the requirements of a summons duly served in the manner prescribed by Law, or

(b) departs from the premises of the Court without the leave of the Judge or Magistrate hearing the case, is liable on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding N10,000.00 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two months.

(2) A complaint shall not be made for an offence under this Section except by the order of the Court made during the hearing of the case for which the evidence of the witness is required.

251. A witness who is present when the hearing or further hearing of a case is adjourned, or who has been duly notified of the time and place to which the hearing or further hearing is so adjourned, shall attend any subsequent hearing and if he defaults, he may be dealt with in the same manner as if he had refused or neglected to attend the Court in obedience to a witness summons.

Non-attendance of witness on adjourned hearing.

252. A person present in Court and compellable as a witness, whether a party or not in a cause, may be compelled by a Court to give evidence, and produce any document in his possession, or in his power, in the same manner and subject to the same rules as if he had been summoned to attend and give evidence, or to produce the document and may be punished in like manner for any refusal to obey the order of the Court.

Persons in Court may be required to give evidence though not summoned.

253. A witness shall take an oath or make a solemn affirmation in such a manner as the Court considers binding on his conscience.

Manner of taking oath or affirmation.

254. (1) Where a person attending Court and who is required to give evidence, without any sufficient excuse or reason:

Witness refusing to be sworn, or produce documents.

(a) refuses to be sworn or to affirm as a witness;

(b) having been sworn or having taken affirmation refuses to answer any question put to him; or

- (c) refuses or neglects to produce any document or anything which he is required by the Court to produce, the Court may adjourn the hearing of the case and may in the meantime by warrant, commit the person to prison or other place of safe custody for a period not more than 5 days or any other non custodial sentence.

(2) Nothing in this Section shall:

- (a) affect the liability of the person to any other punishment for refusing or neglecting to do what is so required of him; or
- (b) prevent the Court from disposing of the case in the meantime according to any other sufficient evidence taken by it.

PART 27 - WITNESSES: EXPENSES

|------|--|---|
| 255. | Where a person attends Court as a State witness, the witness shall be entitled to payment of such reasonable expenses as may be prescribed by the Attorney-General. | Expenses of witnesses for the prosecution. |
| 256. | Where a person attends Court as a witness to give evidence for the defence, the Court may in its discretion on application, order payment by the Registrar to such witness of Court such sums of money, as it may deem reasonable and sufficient to compensate the witness for the expenses he reasonably incurred in attending the Court. | Expenses of witnesses for the defence. |
| 257. | The Court may permit an application of a party for an adjournment of the proceedings and in so doing, may order the party seeking the adjournment to pay to a witness present in Court and whose evidence it has not been possible to take owing to the adjournment, such sum in the amount payable to a witness in accordance with Section 255 of this Law, or such sum as the Court may fix. | Adjournment may be granted subject to witnesses' costs. |
| 258. | The amount of the expenses payable to a witness pursuant to Sections 256 of this Law shall be processed and paid by the Registrar of the Court to the witness out of the relevant vote as appropriated by the Judiciary. | Ascertainment of witnesses expenses. |

PART 28 - EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES

- | | | |
|------|---|------------------------------------|
| 259. | Subject to the provisions of any other Law, the examination of witnesses shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Evidence Act. | Application of the Evidence Act. |
| 260. | The Court may, at any stage of a trial, inquiry or other proceedings under this Law, either of its own motion or on application of either party to the proceeding, call a person as a witness or recall and re-examine a person already examined where his evidence appears to the Court to be essential to the just determination of the case. | Power to call or recall witnesses. |
| 261. | A certificate signed by any of the Officers named in Section 55 of the Evidence | Certificates of certain |

- Act, shall be admissible in evidence in accordance with the provisions of that Law. Government technical Officers.
262. In a case where the right of reply depends on the question whether evidence has been called for the defence, the fact that the Defendant charged has been called as a witness shall not of itself confer on the prosecution the right of reply, but a Law Officer for the prosecution shall in all cases have the right of reply. Right of reply.
263. (1) Subject to the provisions of Sections 239 and 264 to 266 of this Law and of any other Law specifically relating thereto, the room or place in which a trial is to take place under this Law shall be an open Court to which the public generally may have access as far as it can conveniently contain them. Public to have access to hearing.
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this Section, the Judge or Magistrate presiding over a trial may, in his discretion and subject to the provisions of Section 264 of this Law, exclude the public at any stage of the hearing on the grounds of public policy, decency or expediency.
- (3) Where the Court is sitting in a place other than in a building, the authority given in subsection (2) of this Section to exclude the public shall be construed as being authority to prevent the public approaching so near to where the Court is sitting, as in the opinion of the Judge or Magistrate, to be able to hear what is taking place at the trial or be able to communicate with a person allowed to be present.
264. Where a person who, in the opinion of the Court has not attained the age of 18 is called as witness in any proceeding in relation to an offence against or any conduct contrary to decency or morality, the Court may direct that all or any person not being:
- (a) members or Officers of the Court, or
- (b) parties to the case, their legal representatives or persons otherwise directly concerned in the case,
- be excluded from the Court during the taking of the evidence of such person.
265. (1) An order made under Section 263 or 264 of this Law excluding the public from a Court shall not unless specifically stated:
- (a) authorise the exclusion of bona fide representatives of a newspaper, broadcast or news agency; or
- (b) apply to messengers, clerks and other persons required to attend the Court for purposes connected with their employment.
- (2) Where an order is made, the Court shall record the grounds on which the order is made.
266. An infant, other than an infant in the arms of parent or guardian, or Child shall not be permitted to be present in Court during the trial of a Defendant charged with an Prohibition on Children being present in Court during the trial of other

- (a) he is the Defendant charged with the alleged offence; or
- (b) his presence is required as a witness or otherwise for the purposes of justice in which event he may remain for so long as his presence is necessary.

267. (1) Where it appears to the Court that in the interest of justice, the Court should have a view of any place, person or thing connected with the case, the Court may, where the view relates to a place, either adjourn the Court to that place and there continue the proceedings or adjourn the case and proceed to view the place, person or thing concerned. Visit by Court to locus.
- (2) The Defendant shall be present at the viewing of the place, person or thing concerned.
- (3) At the locus, the Court shall give directions as it may deem fit for the purpose of preventing communication between the witnesses and the Defendant.
- (4) A breach of a direction given under subsection (3) of this Section shall not affect the validity of the proceedings unless the Court otherwise directs.
268. (1) Where the age of a person is in issue in any criminal proceeding, the Court may determine the question by taking into account one or both of the following: Determination of age.
- (a) the apparent physical appearance of the person concerned;
 - (b) any evidence in relation to the age of the person concerned, received by the Court in accordance with the provisions of the Evidence Act, the Children and Young Persons Law, or any other Law in force.
- (2) The evidence of a witness, who is not an expert within the meaning of Section 68 of the Evidence Act, 2011, shall be admissible for the purpose of this Section.
- (3) An order or judgment of the Court shall not be invalidated by any subsequent proof that the age of the person has not been correctly stated to the Court, and the age presumed or declared by the Court to be the age of that person shall, for the purpose of this Law, be deemed to be the true age of that person.
269. Where in a charge for an offence, it is alleged that the person by or in respect of whom the offence was committed, was a Child under or above a specified age, and he appears to the Court to have been at the date of the commission of the alleged offence a Child under or above the specified age, as the case may be, he shall, for the purposes of this Law, be presumed at that date to have been a Child or to have been under or above that age, as the case may be, unless the contrary is proved.
