Date of Commencement

BE IT ENACTED by the rivers state house of assembly of Nigeria as follows:

Enactment

PART 1 – PRELIMINARY

1. (1) The purpose of this Law is to ensure that the system of administration of criminal justice in Rivers State promotes the efficient management of criminal justice institutions, speedy dispensation of justice, protection of the society from crime and protection of the rights and interests of a suspect, defendant, and victim. Purpose
- (2) The Courts, law enforcement agencies and other authorities or persons involved in criminal justice administration shall ensure compliance with this Law for the realisation of its purposes.
2. (1) Without prejudice to section 86, this Law applies to criminal trials for offences established by a Law and other offences punishable in Rivers State. Application
- (2) This Law shall not apply to a Court Martial.

PART 2- ARREST, BAIL AND PREVENTIVE JUSTICE

3. A suspect or defendant alleged to have committed an offence or charged with committing an offence established by a Law or any other offence Arrest punishable in Rivers State shall be arrested, investigated or tried according to this Law, except where otherwise provided in this Law. Arrest generally
4. In making an arrest, the police officer or any other person making the arrest Mode shall actually touch or confine the body of the suspect, unless there is a submission to the custody by word or action. Mode of arrest
5. A suspect or defendant may not be handcuffed bound or be subjected to restraint except: No unnecessary restraint.
 - (a) there is reasonable apprehension of violence or an attempt to escape,
 - (b) the restraint is considered necessary for the safety of the suspect or defendant; or
 - (c) by an order of Court.
6. (1) Where a police officer or any other person makes an arrest, he shall: Notification of cause of arrest and rights of suspect
 - (a) immediately inform the suspect of the reason for the arrest in a language the suspect understands best; and
 - (b) where he or any law enforcement agent present does not speak a language which the suspect best understands, inform the head of the police station or facility to which the suspect is taken of the language barrier, and the head of the station or facility shall immediately take reasonable steps to communicate the reason for the arrest to the suspect in the language he understands best.

- (2) Subsection (1) shall not apply to a suspect who;
 - (a) having escaped from lawful custody, is re-arrested; and
 - (b) was told of the reason for his arrest when he was first arrested.
- (3) (a) The police officer or the person making the arrest at the point of arrest, or
(b) the police officer in charge of a police station, where the arresting officer does not speak the language the suspect understands; shall inform the suspect of his rights to:
 - (i) remain silent or avoid answering any question until after consultation with a legal representative or any other person of his choice;
 - (ii) consult a legal representative of his choice before he makes, endorses or writes any statement or answers any question put to him after arrest;
 - (iii) free legal representation by the Legal Aid Council of Nigeria where applicable;

A person suspected of committing an offence against a law, which the House of Assembly has power to make, can be tried in the State if he is apprehended or found within the State, notwithstanding that the offence or any part of the offence did not occur within the State. Jurisdiction over offences committed elsewhere
97. (1) The Chief Judge may, where it appears to him that the transfer of a case will promote the ends of justice or will be in the interest of public peace, transfer a case from one Court to another. Chief Judge may transfer a case.

(2) The Chief Judge may not exercise the power in subsection (1) where the prosecution has called witnesses.

(3) Subsection (2) shall not apply where a hearing has commenced and witnesses have been called in a case and due to the particular circumstances of the case, the Chief Judge may move the Court to another venue in the interest of justice and the public, integrity of the Court process, public order or security reasons.

98. A Court before which a person charged with an offence is brought shall where:

When cases may be remitted to another Court.

- (a) the offence ought to be properly inquired into or tried by another Court; or
- (b) in the opinion of the Court, the offence ought to be conveniently inquired into or tried by another Court, send the case and, all processes relating to the case, within a reasonable period not later than 7 days, to the head of Court for reassignment to that other Court, and where appropriate, remand the suspect charged in custody or require him to give security for his attendance before that other Court to answer the charges and to be dealt with accordingly.

99. (1) Where a suspect is to be remanded in custody in section 98, a warrant shall be issued by the remitting Court and that warrant shall be sufficient authority to a person to whom it is directed to:

Removal under warrant.

- (a) receive and detain the suspect named in the warrant; and,
- (b) produce him to the Court to which the suspect charged is remitted.

(2) The person to whom the warrant is directed shall execute it according to terms of the warrant without delay.

100. Where a suspect is:

Transfer of case where cause of complaint has arisen out of jurisdiction of Court.

- (a) in custody and the Court directing a transfer thinks it expedient that the custody should be continued or
- (b) not in custody and the Court thinks it expedient that he should be placed in custody, the Court shall, by its warrant, commit the suspect to prison, subject to such security as it may deem appropriate in the circumstances, until he can be taken before a Court where the cause of complaint arose.

101. (1) Notwithstanding sections 93 and 98, a Judge or Magistrate of a division or district in which a Suspect:

Court may assume jurisdiction under certain conditions.

- (a) is arrested and charged with an offence alleged to have been committed in another division or district,
- (b) is in custody on the charge or
- (c) has appeared in answer to summons lawfully issued charging the offence, may, where he considers that justice would be better served and having regards to the accessibility and convenience of the witnesses, proceed to hear the charge, try and punish as if the offence had been committed in the division or district.

(2) The offence in subsection (1) shall, for all purposes, be deemed to have been committed in that division or district.

Assumption of jurisdiction after commencement of proceedings.

102. Where a case is commenced in another division or district other than that in which it ought to have been commenced, the Court may assume jurisdiction in accordance with section 101 and an act performed and a decision given by the Court during the trial or any other proceedings are deemed to be valid as if the jurisdiction had been assumed prior to the performance of the act and the giving of the decision.

103. Where an offence against an Act is:

Offences against an Act.

- (a) commenced in the State and completed in another State; or
- (b) completed in the State after being commenced in another State, the offender may be tried and punished as if the offence had been actually or wholly committed in the State.

PART 10 - POWERS OF THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL OF THE STATE

104 (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Law or any other Law in the State, the Attorney-General may prefer or exhibit an information or charge in respect of an offence triable on information or charge created by a law or an Act, the prosecution for which offence or an element of which has been committed in the State.

Information by the Attorney-General.

(2) The Attorney-General may authorize another person to exercise any or all the powers conferred on him in this section.

(3) Where a:

- (a) person other than the Attorney-General, on behalf of the State, initiates or prosecutes in a criminal proceeding for an offence against a Law; or

- (b) public officer initiates or prosecutes in his official capacity in that criminal proceeding, the person or public officer shall initiate or prosecute the case subject to any general or specific direction as the Attorney-General may give.

105. (1) The Attorney-General may issue legal advice or other directive to the Police or any other law enforcement agency in respect of an offence created by a Law of the State.

Issuance of legal advice and other directives to police.

- (2) The Commissioner of Police shall:
 - (a) within 48 hours of the completion of his investigation, or
 - (b) where he decides that there is a prima facie case, whichever is earlier, forward a duplicate case file with respect to an offence triable on information to the office of the Attorney-General for the purpose of issuing legal advice.

- (3) The legal advice issued by the Office of the Attorney-General with respect to an offence triable on information or a person is conclusive.

- (4) Notwithstanding subsections (2) and (3), the Attorney-General may request from the Police or any other agency for the case file or duplicate case file in a matter in respect of an offence created by a Law and the Police or other agency shall immediately send the case file as requested.

- (5) (a) Where the facts of a Police duplicate file forwarded to the Office of the Attorney-General in a proceeding with respect to an offence triable on information against a Law of the State indicate a prima facie case against a person, the Attorney-General shall inform the Magistrate in writing by way of legal advice through an officer in his Chambers or the prosecuting Police Officer.

- (b) The legal advice in paragraph (a) may be an edited or summarised version of the Attorney-General's legal advice.

- (6) (a) The office of the Attorney-General shall ensure service of a copy of the legal advice or an edited or summarized copy of it on a person in respect of whom legal advice is preferred through the:

- (i) prison authority if the person is remanded in custody; or
- (ii) appropriate Court if the person is on bail.

- (b) The Legal advice in paragraph (a) includes edited, or summarized legal advice.

- (7) A form indicating a desire to be represented by counsel of his choice or by the office of the Public Defender, Legal Aid Council or any other organisation providing legal aid shall be attached to each legal advice for purposes of endorsement by the person in respect of whom legal advice is preferred.
- (8) Where a proceeding is pending in respect of the offence for which legal advice or other directive in subsection (1) is given, a copy of the legal advice or direction or an edited or summarised version shall be forwarded by the Attorney-General or Director of Public Prosecutions to the Court before whom the proceeding is pending.
- (9) (a) Nothing in this Section shall be construed as precluding the Attorney-General from instituting and undertaking criminal proceedings against a person before a Court of Law in the State.
- (b) Where in this section, an edited or summarised copy of the legal advice is served or forwarded to the Court or a defendant, neither the Attorney-General nor an officer in his chambers, nor a staff of the Director of Public Prosecutions shall be ordered to disclose or produce the contents of the full legal advice.
- (c) A failure or refusal in paragraph (b), to produce or forward or disclose the full legal advice shall not invalidate the legal advice or any proceeding upon which it is premised.

106. Subject to the provisions of the Constitution relating to the powers of prosecution by the Attorney-General of the State, prosecution of an offence in a Court of the State shall be undertaken by:-

Prosecution of offences.

- (a) the Attorney-General or a Law Officer in his Ministry;
- (b) a legal representative authorised by the Attorney-General;
- (c) a legal representative authorized to prosecute by this Law or any other Law of the State; or
- (d) a police officer or any other person authorised by the Attorney-General.

PART 11 - CONTROL OF CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS BY THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL

107. (1) In a criminal proceeding for an offence against a law of the State and at any stage of the proceeding before judgment, the Attorney-General may discontinue the proceedings either in person or through an officer in his Ministry by stating in Court or informing the Court in writing that the Attorney-General intends that the proceedings shall not continue and the defendant shall immediately be discharged in respect of the charge or information for which the discontinuance is entered.

Discontinuance of criminal cases

- (2) Pursuant to subsection (1), where the defendant is:
- (a) committed to prison, he shall be released immediately in relation to that offence;
 - (b) on bail, the recognizance shall be discharged,
 - (c) not before the Court when the discontinuance is entered, the registrar or appropriate officer of the Court shall immediately cause notice in writing of the entry of the discontinuance to be given to the officer in charge of the prison or the place where the defendant may be detained and the notice shall be sufficient authority to discharge the defendant; or
 - (d) (d) not in custody, the Court shall immediately cause notice in writing to be given to the defendant and his sureties and shall in either case cause a similar notice in writing to be given to a witness bound over to attend the trial.
- (3) Notwithstanding subsection (2) (c), where a defendant is not in Court, the registrar or appropriate officer of the Court shall immediately cause a production warrant to be given to the officer in charge of the prison or the place in which the defendant is detained to produce the defendant at a specified time and date at the Court so he can be released.
- (4) Where discontinuance is entered in accordance with this section, the discharge of the defendant shall not operate as a bar to any subsequent proceedings against him on account of the same facts.
108. (1) The Attorney-General may, in a trial or proceeding before a High Court or Magistrates Court, instruct a prosecutor in the case of an offence against a Law of the State, to withdraw from the prosecution of a person:
- (a) either generally; or
 - (b) in respect of one or more of the offences with which the person is charged,
- at any time before judgment is pronounced or an order of committal is made.

Withdrawals from prosecution in trials and inquiries before a Court.

Provided that an advice in writing by an officer from the Attorney-General's chambers and authorised by the Attorney-General, that he is withdrawing the prosecution generally or for one or more of the offences shall be sufficient and a copy or a summary of the written advice may be served on the Court and on the defendant.

- (2) Where the withdrawal is made
 - (a) before the defendant is called upon to enter his defence, he shall be discharged of the offence; and
 - (b) after the defendant is called upon to enter his defence, he shall be acquitted of the offence.
- (3) (a) In a trial before a Court where the prosecutor withdraws in respect of the prosecution of an offence before the defendant is called upon to make his defence, the Court may, in its discretion, order the defendant to be acquitted if it is satisfied, on the merits of the case, that the order is proper.
- (b) When an order of acquittal is made, the Court shall endorse its reasons for making the order on the record.
- (4) Where a private prosecutor withdraws from a prosecution for an offence in this section, the Court may, in its discretion, award costs against the private prosecutor.
- (5) A discharge of a defendant in this section does not operate as a bar to subsequent proceedings against him on account of the same facts, except as provided in this section.

PART 12 - INSTITUTION OF PROCEEDINGS

109. (1) Subject to any other law, criminal proceedings may, in accordance with this Law, be instituted:
- (a) in a Magistrate Court by a charge or complaint;
 - (b) in a High Court, by information and proofs of evidence filed by the Attorney-General, subject to section 104;
 - (c) by information or charge filed in Court after the defendant has been summarily committed for perjury by a Court in this Law;
 - (d) by information or charge filed in Court by any other prosecuting authority; or
 - (e) by information or charge filed by a private prosecutor who has been granted fiat by the Attorney-General provided that a certificate has been endorsed on the information by a law officer in the office of the Attorney-General.

Different methods of instituting
criminal
proceedings.

Provided that the private prosecutor has entered into a recognizance in the sum of N100,000.00 together with one surety to be approved by the Chief Registrar in like sum to prosecute the information to conclusion and to pay costs as ordered by the Court, or in lieu of entering into the recognizance, to deposit the amount in Court and abide by the same conditions.

- (2) (a) Where a law officer refuses or fails to endorse the information or charge prepared by a private prosecutor, an affidavit by the private prosecutor that a law officer has refused or failed to endorse the information or charge shall be served on the Attorney-General.
- (b) Where the private prosecutor has satisfied the requirements in paragraph (a), he may file the information or charge in Court.

110. (1) Criminal proceedings instituted in a Magistrate Court may be by:

Mode of instituting
criminal
proceedings in a Magistrate Court.

- (a) bringing a suspect arrested without a warrant before the Court on a charge contained in a charge sheet specifying the name, address, age, sex, occupation of the suspect charged, the charge against him, the time and place where the offence is alleged to have been committed; and the charge sheets shall be signed by any of the persons mentioned in section 106; or
 - (b) complaint to the Court, subject to section 89, whether or not on oath, that an offence has been committed by a suspect whose presence the Magistrate has power to compel, and an application to the Magistrate, in the manner set out in this section for the issuance of a summons directed to or a warrant to arrest the suspect.
- (2) The charge sheet filed by the prosecution shall be served on the defendant within 7 days of its being filed or at a time as the Court may allow.
- (3) The trial of a charge preferred in subsection (1) (a) shall:
- (a) commence not later than 30 days from the date of filing the charge and
 - (b) be completed within a reasonable time, but not later than 80 days.
- (4) Where a charge is preferred in subsection (1) (a) and the trial:
- (a) does not commence within 30 days of bringing the charge, or
 - (b) has commenced but has not been completed after 80 days of arraignment on that charge,
- the Court shall forward to the Chief Judge particulars of the charge and reasons for failure to commence or to complete the trial.
- (5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (4), a party to the proceedings has the right to notify the Chief Judge of the failure of the Court to either commence or complete the trial within the time stipulated in subsection (4).
- (6) Where the Chief Judge has been notified in subsection (4) or (5), he may recommend to the trial Court, that the case be continued but be completed within a reasonable time not later 28 days.

- (7) Where the case is not completed within the extra days granted in subsection (6), and the Court observes that there has been a deliberate attempt by the:
- (a) prosecution to stall the progress of the trial either because of on-going investigation, non-availability of witnesses or evidence, frivolous adjournments or the excessive use of technicalities as an instrument of delay, the Court shall, where it is in the interest of justice, discharge the defendant without prejudice and may report the prosecutor to the Attorney- General or the Legal Practitioners Disciplinary Committee; or
 - (b) defence to stall the progress of the trial, through the use of frivolous adjournments or the excessive use of technicalities as an instrument of delay, the Court:
 - (i) may report the defence counsel to the Legal Practitioners Disciplinary Committee;
 - (ii) may if the accused is on bail, revoke the bail and place the accused in custody indefinitely, or
 - (iii) shall complete the trial within 10 working days where the accused is not on bail.
- (8) A Court seised of criminal proceedings shall make, to the Chief Judge, quarterly returns of particulars of all cases, including charges, remand and other proceedings commenced and dealt with in the Court within the quarter.
- (9) the Chief Judge shall, when reviewing the returns made by a Court in subsections (4) and (8), consider the need to ensure that:
- (a) criminal matters are speedily dealt with;
 - (b) congestion of cases in Courts is drastically reduced;
 - (c) congestion of prisons is reduced to the barest minimum; and
 - (d) a person awaiting trial is not, as far as possible, detained in prison custody for a length of time beyond that prescribed in section 300.
- (10) (a) The Administration of Criminal Justice Monitoring Council has power to consider returns made to the Chief Judge in subsections (4) to (8) for the purpose of ensuring expeditious disposal of cases.
- (b) The National Human Rights Commission set up under the National Human Rights Commission Act shall have access to the returns on request to the Chief Judge.

111. (1) The Rivers State Comptroller of Prisons shall make returns every 90 days to the Chief Judge and to the Attorney-General of every person awaiting trial held in custody in prisons in the state for more than 180 days from the date of remand or arraignment.

Returns by Comptroller-
General of Prisons

- (2) The returns in subsection (1) shall be in a prescribed form and shall include:
- (a) the name of the suspect held in custody or Awaiting Trial Person,
 - (b) passport photograph of the suspect,
 - (c) the date of his arraignment or remand;
 - (d) the date of his admission to custody;
 - (e) the particulars of the offence with which he was charged;
 - (f) the Court before which he was arraigned;
 - (g) name of the prosecuting agency; and
 - (h) any other relevant information.

Upon receipt of the return, the recipient shall take necessary steps to address the issues raised in the return in furtherance of the objectives of this Law.

PART 13 - RECEIVING COMPLAINTS AND FILING CHARGES

112. (1) Where a complaint is brought before a police officer in charge of a police station concerning the commission of an offence and is:

Procedure for receiving complaints

- (a) one for which the police is authorised to arrest without a warrant; and
- (b) triable by a magistrate Court within which jurisdiction the police station is situated, the police officer shall, if the complaint is made orally, reduce the complaint or cause it to be reduced into writing in the Crime Diary.

- (2) The complaint, whether written or oral shall be written in the Crime Diary and read or cause to be read over to the complainant and the complaint shall be signed by the officer receiving the complaint.
- (3) Where on any other ground the officer in charge of a police station has reason to suspect the commission of an offence in subsection (1), he shall enter or cause to be entered the grounds of his suspicion in a Crime Diary.
- (4) Where the officer is satisfied that no public interest may be served by prosecuting, he may refuse to accept the complaint provided he notifies the complainant of his right to complain to a Court in section 109 (a).

- (5) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the officer in charge of a police station may, if in his opinion the matter might more conveniently be inquired into by an officer in charge of another police station, refer the complaint to that other police station.
- (6) Pursuant to subsection (3), the officer in charge of the police station shall
- (a) without delay, proceed to the scene and investigate the case and if the suspect is not in custody, take steps necessary for the discovery and arrest of the suspect or may direct a police officer subordinate to him to do so and report to him;
 - (b) in a case involving death or serious injury to a person, arrange, if possible, for the person to be taken to the nearest hospital for further examination as may be necessary;
 - (c) where the complaint is given against a person by name and the alleged offence is not of a serious nature, need not make or direct investigation on the spot;
 - (d) in the case mentioned in paragraph (c), record in the Crime Diary his reason for not referring for an investigation or, for not directing an investigation on the spot;
 - (e) where after the investigation, it appears that the complaints against the suspect are unfounded, shall terminate the investigation; and
 - (f) where there is sufficient evidence and he considers that the prosecution of the alleged offence will serve the public interest, forward the file to the office of the Attorney-General for legal advice.
- (7) (a) Where the suspect appears or is brought on a charge before the Magistrates' Court, he shall where the Magistrate has jurisdiction to try the matter, be asked to elect whether he wants to be tried before the Magistrates' Court or the High Court.
- (b) Where he elects to be tried at the Magistrates' Court, the charge shall be read to him.
 - (c) Where the Magistrate has no jurisdiction, the prosecutor shall file the information at the High Court.
 - (d) Where the suspect elects to be tried by the High Court, the Magistrate shall record:
 - (i) the charge against the accused person;
 - (ii) the fact that the accused person has elected to be tried by the High Court;

- (iii) whether bail was granted or refused to the suspect and where bail was refused, the fact that the suspect was informed of his right to apply to the High Court for bail; and
 - (iv) any other fact relevant to the charge which transpired in the proceedings before the magistrate.
 - (8) Where the charge is read to the suspect in subsection (7) (b) and he admits the commission of the offence, his admission shall be recorded in the exact words used by him and the Magistrate may proceed to convict him.
 - (9) Where the suspect denies the allegation against him and states that he intends to show cause why he should not be convicted, the Magistrate shall proceed to enter a not guilty plea for him and proceed to trial.
113. (1) The magistrate shall, as soon as possible but not later than 2 days after recording the details in section 1 12(7)(d), transmit a copy of the record and any relevant document to the Attorney-General. Transmission of documents
- (2) The magistrate shall direct the: prosecuting police officer or a police officer acting under the general or special instruction of the Commissioner of Police, to transmit to the Attorney-General not later than 2 days after the direction:
- (a) the police case file relating to the charge; and
 - (b) an inventory of any article or exhibit relating to the charge.
- (3) Pursuant to sub-section (2), the Magistrate before whom the suspect is charged shall direct the prosecuting police officer or a police officer generally or specially instructed by the Commissioner of Police, to take inventory of, label or mark an article or exhibit connected with the charge.
- (4) A police officer who fails to comply with the directions of the Magistrate within the period specified in sub-section (2) commits an offence and is liable, on summary conviction, to a sum of N10,000.00.
- (5) A police officer who fails to comply with sub-section (4) commits an offence and is liable, on summary conviction, to a fine of N10,000.00.
- 114 (1) the Magistrate shall, after the charge has been read to the suspect or after the suspect has elected to be tried by the High Court or at any time thereafter, bind over every witness present in Court or brought before him subsequently to attend to give evidence at the trial of the suspect before the High Court, whether or not the prosecution intends not to call all of them as witnesses. Binding over of witness.

- (2) Where there is a witness bound over that the prosecution does not intend to call at the trial, the witness shall continue to be present at the trial for a reasonable period as may enable the suspect or his counsel to decide whether or not to call the witness to give evidence for the defence.
 - (3) A witness bound over shall enter into a recognizance which shall specify the name, surname, occupation or profession, if any, and address of the person entering into it.
 - (4) The recognizance shall be acknowledged by the person entering into it and be subscribed by the Magistrate before whom it is acknowledged.
 - (5) A witness who refuses, without reasonable excuse, to enter into the recognizance in subsection (3) may, by warrant under the hand of the Magistrate, be committed to prison or a place of safe custody until after trial or until the witness enters into a recognizance before a Magistrate.
 - (6) Where the suspect is discharged:
 - (a) the magistrate shall order any witness in the case to be discharged immediately; and
 - (b) any recognizance entered into by the witness becomes void.
115. (1) Where the Attorney-General receives the police case file, the record of the facts in section 112(7)(d) and documents in section 113, he may direct a law officer in the Ministry of Justice to prepare proofs of evidence as specified in section 116.
- Preparation of proofs of evidence.
- (2) Without prejudice to subsection (1), it is the duty of the Director of Public Prosecutions and law officers in the Attorney-General's chambers, acting under the Attorney-General's directives, to prepare proofs of evidence in respect of a criminal charge.
- (3) Where a private prosecutor is prosecuting a case, he shall prepare proofs of evidence in accordance with this Law.
116. (1) Pursuant to section 115, the proofs of evidence shall contain:
- Contents of proofs
of evidence.
- (a) a statement of the charge against an accused person;
 - (b) where the accused person has a right of election, a statement that he elected to be tried by the High Court;
 - (c) name, address and statement of a material witness whom the prosecution intends to call;
 - (d) name, address and statement of a material witness whom the prosecution does not intend to call; provided that the submission of the name of the witness shall not prevent the prosecution from calling that witness at the trial if the prosecution later desires to;

- (e) copy of a report, if any, made by a medical practitioner about the state of mind of the accused person in custody or any other medical report submitted under section 372,
- (f) an inventory of any article and exhibit to be produced in Court at the trial;
- (g) record of a previous conviction, if any, affecting the credibility of a witness for the prosecution;
- (h) statement of the accused person; and
- (i) any other statement or document which the prosecution may consider relevant to the case.

117. (1) The Attorney-General may, after preparation of the proofs of evidence, if he considers it necessary, remit or cause to be remitted witnesses to the Magistrate before whom the charge was laid or to any other Magistrate, the statement of a witness for verification.
- (2) The Magistrate shall then fix a date when he shall summon the witness and the accused person before him for the purpose of verification of the statement of the witness.
- (3) On the date fixed by the Magistrate, the Court clerk shall read out the statement of the witness in the presence of the accused person and the witness shall verify his statement on oath.
- (4) After the witness has verified his statement, the Magistrate shall inform the accused person of his right and give him or his legal representative the opportunity to cross-examine the witness.
- (5) The answers of the witness to the cross-examination and the fact that the accused person was informed of his rights and given opportunity to cross-examine, if he or his counsel did not elect to do so, shall be recorded by the magistrate and form part of the proofs of evidence.
- (6) The Magistrate shall remit back to the Attorney-General the verified proofs of evidence in subsection (5) which includes the witness's answers given in cross-examination and the fact that the accused person was informed of his rights and given the opportunity to cross-examine the witness.
- (7) Where the evidence of two or more witnesses are to be verified, the verification of each witness's evidence shall be held apart from the other unless the Magistrate directs otherwise or considers it necessary in the interest of justice that a particular witness should be permitted or required to be present during the whole or a part of the verification of the evidence of any other witness.

Verification of
witnesses

- (8) A verification of evidence shall not be held in an open or public Court and a Court or Magistrate may order that any person entering the Court without express permission of the Court be refused access to be or remain in the place where the verification takes place. Verification not to be held in open Court.
- (9) The verification of evidence taken by the Court or Magistrate shall be transmitted to the Attorney-General.
118. (1) Where the Attorney-General receives the verified proofs of evidence and is satisfied that there is a prima facie evidence from the record to put the accused person on trial on all or any of the charges against him, he shall prefer an information against the accused person in respect of all or any of the charges. Information
- (2) Where the record of the verified proofs of evidence does not, in the opinion of the Attorney-General, disclose sufficient evidence to support the charge or charges against the accused person, the Attorney-General shall inform the Magistrate in writing and the magistrate shall, as soon as possible, summon the accused person to Court and discharge him.
119. (1) Subject to section 118(1), where the Attorney-General prefers an information after the preparation of the proofs of evidence, he shall cause sufficient copies of the information and proofs of evidence to be transmitted to the Registrar of the High Court in which the trial is to take place. Service of copies of information
- (2) Where the Registrar of the High Court in which the trial is to take place receives the documents in subsection (1), he shall furnish every accused person, free of charge, with a copy of the information and proofs of evidence.
- (3) The records transmitted to the Registrar of the High Court in subsection (1) shall not include particulars of the accused person's previous convictions except the particulars shall be supplied to the High Court after the accused person has been convicted, and it shall be open to the accused or his legal representative at any time before the trial commences to request the police to supply him with particulars of his or the accused person's previous convictions as the case may be.

PART 14 - ENFORCING APPEARANCE OF SUSPECT

120. A Court may issue a summons or warrant as provided in this Law to compel the appearance of a suspect before it, accused of having committed an offence, triable in the State, in any place, whether in or outside Nigeria. Compelling appearance of a suspect

121. In every case, the Court may proceed either by way of summons to the suspect or by way of warrant for his arrest in the first instance according to the nature and circumstances of the case. Summons and warrants.
122. (1) Subject to section 89, a person who has a probable cause or reasonable grounds to believe that an offence has been committed by another person whose appearance a Magistrate has power to compel, may make a complaint of the commission of the offence to a Magistrate who shall consider the allegations of the complainant and may: Making of complaint and issue of process.
- (a) in his discretion, refuse to issue a process and shall record his reasons for the refusal; or
- (b) issue a summons or warrant as he deems fit to compel the attendance of the suspect before a Magistrate Court in the district.
- (2) The Magistrate shall not refuse to issue a summons or warrant only because the alleged offence is one for which a suspect may be arrested without warrant.

PART 15 – ISSUE, FORM AND SERVICE OF SUMMONS

123. A summons may be issued or served on any day, including Sunday or a public holiday. Issue and service.
124. Where a complaint is made before a Magistrate in section 122 and the Magistrate decides to issue a summons, the summons shall be directed to the suspect: Issue of summons and its contents.
- (a) stating concisely the substance of the complaint; and
- (b) requiring him to appear at a certain time and place, not less than 48 hours after the service of the summons before the Court to answer to the complaint and to be further dealt with according to law.
125. The Court may, where it deems fit and with the consent of the parties, hear and determine a complaint notwithstanding that the time which the defendant was required to appear may not have elapsed. Hearing by consent before return date of summons.
126. Where a complaint is made before a Magistrate in section 122, and the Magistrate decides to issue a summons, the defendant may be directed to appear immediately in a case where an affidavit is made by the complainant, either at the time of making the complaint or subsequently, that the defendant is likely to leave the district within 48 hours. Summons with immediate return date in special circumstances.
127. Without prejudice to this law or any other enactment, where an ex parte application is brought before a Court, the Court shall consider the justice of the circumstances including whether the application should be brought on notice before granting the ex parte order. Discretion in ex parte application.

128. A summons issued by a Court in this Law shall be: Summons to be in duplicate.
- (a) in writing;
 - (b) made in duplicate; and
 - (c) signed by the presiding officer of the Court or by any other officer as the Chief Judge may specify.
129. A summons shall be: Service of summons
- (a) served by a police officer;
 - (b) an officer of the Court issuing it,

 - (b) discharge the recognizance either wholly or as it relates to the applicant, on the defendant's appearance, and
 - (c) require the defendant to find other sufficient sureties or meet other conditions, and if he fails to do so, may make an order as it deems fit.
185. (1) Where a surety to a recognizance becomes insolvent, dies or where a recognizance is forfeited, the Court may order the defendant from whom the recognizance was demanded to furnish fresh security in accordance with the directions of the original order. Order of fresh security upon original order.
- (2) Where the security in subsection (1) is not furnished, the Court may proceed as if there is a default in complying with the original order.
186. (1) Where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court by which a recognizance has been taken or, when the recognizance bond is for appearance before a Court and it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court, that a recognizance has been forfeited, the Court shall record the grounds of proof and may call on a person bound by the bond to pay the penalty or show cause why it should not be paid. Forfeiture of recognizance.
- (2) Where sufficient cause is not shown and the penalty is not paid, the Court may recover the penalty from the person bound or from his estate if he is dead, in the manner laid down in this Law for the recovery of fines.
- (3) A surety's estate shall be liable in this section where the surety dies after the recognizance is forfeited.

- (4) When the penalty is not paid and cannot be recovered in the manner provided in this Law, the person bound is liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months.
- (5) The Court may at its discretion remit any portion of the penalty and enforce payment in part only.
187. The Court may at any time cancel or mitigate the forfeiture, on the person liable under the recognizance applying and giving security to the satisfaction of the Court, for the future performance of the condition of the recognizance and paying, or giving security for the payment of the costs incurred in respect of the forfeiture or other conditions as the Court may consider just. Mitigation of forfeiture
188. Where a defendant required by a Court to find sufficient sureties fails to do so, the Court shall, unless it is just and proper in the circumstances, make another order in the case of a defendant: Where defendant fails to find surety
- (a) charged with an offence and released on bail, an order committing him to prison until he is brought to trial, discharged or finds sufficient sureties, or meets other conditions as the Court may direct in the circumstances, or
- (b) ordered to give security for good behaviour, an order committing him to prison for the remainder of the period for which he was originally ordered to give security or until he finds sufficient sureties.
189. (1) Where a recognizance has been entered by a defendant as principal or as surety before a Court to keep the peace and be of good behaviour, or not to commit an act or thing, a Court, on proof that the person bound by the recognizance as principal has been convicted of an offence which is by law a breach of the condition of the recognizance, may order that the: Forfeiture on conviction
- (a) recognizance be forfeited; and
- (b) person bound by it, whether as a principal or as surety, shall pay the amount for which he is bound.

240. In a trial for an offence of defilement, and the facts proved in evidence warrants a conviction for an indecent assault and not the offence with which the defendant is charged, the defendant may be convicted of indecent assault although he was not charged with that offence.
- On charge of defilement conviction of indecent assault may follow.
241. Where a defendant is charged and tried for the murder of a child or for infanticide and it appears in evidence that the defendant is not guilty of murder or infanticide, but is guilty of the offence of concealment of birth, the defendant may be convicted of that offence.
- Where murder or infanticide is charged and concealment of birth is proved.
242. (1) Where a defendant is charged and tried for the murder of a new born child and it appears in evidence that the defendant is not guilty of murder but is guilty of infanticide, the defendant may be convicted of infanticide.
- Where murder is charged and infanticide proved.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) prevents a defendant who is tried for the murder of a new born child from being:
- (a) convicted of manslaughter;
 - (b) found guilty of concealment of birth, or
 - (c) acquitted on the ground that by virtue of an applicable law he is not criminally responsible and dealt with in accordance with this Law or any other law.
243. (1) Where a defendant is charged with an offence consisting of several particulars, a combination of some of which constitutes a lesser offence and the combination is proved but the remaining particulars are not proved, he may be convicted of, or plead guilty to the lesser offence although he is not charged with it.
- Where offence proved is not included in offence charged.
- (2) Where a defendant is charged with an offence and facts are proved which reduce it to a lesser offence, he may be convicted of the lesser offence although he was not charged with it.
244. (1) Where more than one charge is proffered against a defendant and the Court has entered a conviction on one or more of them:
- (a) the prosecutor may after offering his reasons or explanation to the Court, withdraw the remaining charge or charges; or
- Withdrawal of remaining charges on conviction on one of several charges.

- (b) the Court may of its own motion, ask the prosecutor what he intends to do with the remaining charge or charges, and where the prosecutor indicates that he wants to withdraw the remaining charge or charges, the Court may stay the trial of the other charge or charges.
- (2) A withdrawal has the effect of an acquittal on the charge or charges unless the conviction is set aside, then, subject to an order of the Court setting aside the conviction, the Court before which the withdrawal was made may, on the request of the prosecutor, proceed on the charge or charges withdrawn.

PART 24 - PREVIOUS ACQUITTALS OR CONVICTION

245. (1) Without prejudice to section 233 a defendant charged with an offence is not liable to be tried for that offence where it is shown that he has previously been:
- Defendant convicted or acquitted not to be tried again for same or kindred offence.
